~~Memo.~~

A Sanscrit School under the designation of Veda Vedanta Bodhini with a small Sanscrit Library attached to it was started at Melkote on the 28th August 1892 in connection with the Temple of Sri Tirunarayanaswami and has been located in the Temple premises.

2. It has been resolved to teach the students therein the three Vedas, Upanishads the Sankhya and Yoga Philosophies Manu Smrithi, Dravida Prabandas and Agamas; and also to train them to conduct religious services in the Temple.

3. As the Sri-Vishnavas residing at Melkote are composed of Tengalais and Vadagalais, the masters and the Stipendiary students of the Institution will consist of an equal number from each Community as far as may be practicable.

4. With reference to the foregoing Rule, the teaching Staff has been appointed, Stipendiary Students have been named and also separate instructions in detail have been issued defining their duties in connection with the religious services to be performed by them in the Temple in addition to their School work.

5. Kuppamiengar the Head master of the Sanscrit School and Penakonda Seshachar the Agent of Sri Parakala Matt at Melkote have been requested to supervise the working of the School and to report from time to time to the Muzrai Superintendent regarding its progress and all essential matters connected therewith.
